Each year the Senior Class of DuPont High dedicates the yearbook to someone who they feel has contributed to their success during their high school years. The Class of '67 proudly dedicates the 1967 DuPontian to Miss Erma Brooke, music teacher and choral director.

Miss Brooke, who has taught at DuPont for thirteen years, was born in Huntington, W. Va. but later moved to Charleston where she attended Stonewall Jackson High. She has also attended the Cincinnati Conservatory Music, Morris Harvey College and Columbia University, where she attained her Master's Degree in Music.

Principal HARRY B. DOUGLAS

Part janitor, teacher, statistician, engineer, diplomat, and politician—this describes Mr. Harry Douglas, our principal. Mr. Douglas came to DuPont High in 1940 as a teacher and football coach. In 1956 he was appointed Dean of Boys, a position which he held until the new school was built.

In 1962 Mr. Douglas went to Cedar Grove as principal. He returned to DuPont as principal in 1964. Mr. Douglas is 100% DuPont. He desires the best for our school and spends many long hours working toward this end.

Vice-Principal George C. Cubbon first came to DuPont in 1939. He taught and served as basketball coach until 1948 when he went to Woodrow Wilson Junior High as counsellor.

In 1964 Mr. Cubbon returned to DuPont. As vice-principal he counsels and advises students and teachers and maintains good relations with parents.

Administrators

Vice-Principal GEORGE C. CUBBON

Mrs. Violet Deem Campbell, Girls' Counselor, has been teaching for 41 years. She taught at St. Albans and Ansted before coming to Malden High School which in 1939 became known as DuPont High.

As a counselor, Mrs. Campbell advises students in scheduling classes in order to prepare for their future. Any problem a student wishes to take to her is never too big or too little for her to try to resolve. She said on one occasion, "Sometimes I feel like 'Dear Abby.'"

Mrs. Campbell taught English and speech before settling down to counseling.

MRS. VIOLET DEEM CAMPBELL

Counselors Guide Students

MR. ROBERT SMITH

Mr. Robert Smith, Boys' Counselor, came to DuPont in 1962, the year the new school opened. Before coming to DuPont he taught at Big Creek, Carry and Vinson High Schools.

Mr. Smith did his undergraduate work at Concord College and his graduate work at Marshall University after graduating from North Fork High School in McDowell County.

As Boys' Counselor he is in charge of the testing program, superintendent of the ESEA program, and is the vocational counselor.

Chorus Presents "Oliver"

"Oliver", the Broadway musical based on Charles Dickens' "Oliver Twist" was given this year by the DuPont High School Choruses. The event was held on November 18-19, 1966 at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Because of his mother's death during childbirth, Oliver was placed in a workhouse and was treated very harshly. Oliver found that he was in an establishment of thieves who wanted him to join their way of living. Many quick and exciting incidents occur that entirely change his life.

The production was directed by Miss Erma Brooke with Frances Vickers as accompanist.

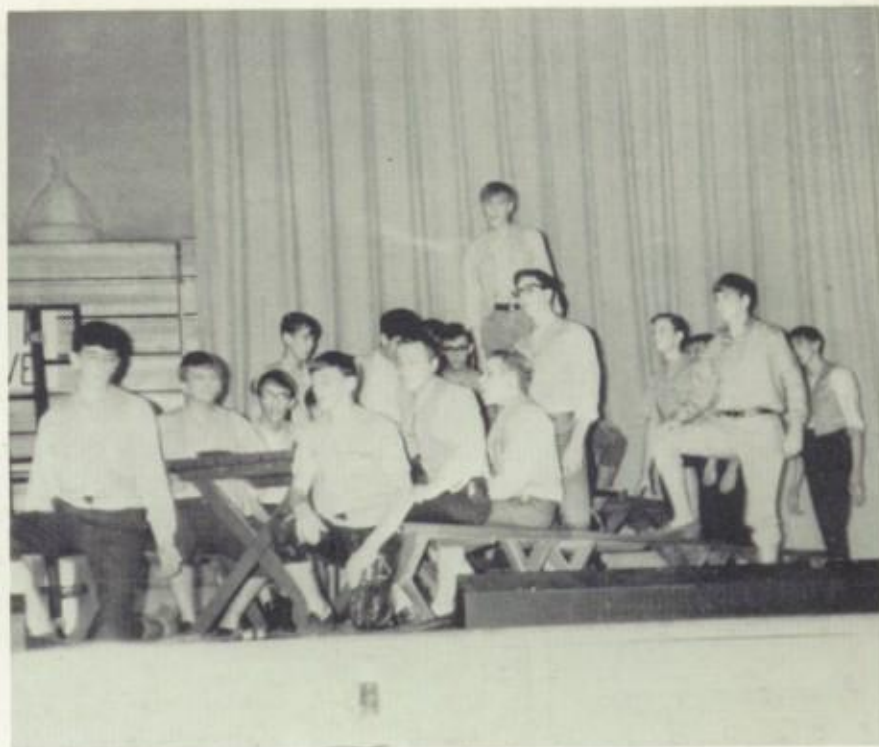

Chorus members prepare the stage for a performance.

Ronnie Crockett portrays Fagin as he counts up his stolen articles of the preceding day.

Debbie Killen plays the part of Nancy as she sings "Oom-pah-pah."

Male members of the chorus were the workhouse boys.

Tom Johnson, Priscilla Ross, Debbie Killen, and Steve Otey do a number together.

An early morning street scene while Steve Otey looks on.

The final number was performed by the entire cast.

Molly Farrand played Daisy Dorrance; Randy Chapman, Chester Quingle; Linda Moore, Mrs. Sally Crossbury; Raymond Arbaugh, Archibald Quingle; Shari Samples, Mrs. Julia Quingle; and Pat Wiseman, Myrtle Jones.

Speech Class Gives "Fireman Save My Child"

Mary Lawson (Becky Cook) reveals Archibald's secret to Mrs. Quingle (Shari Samples) as Bing Barnes (Glen Ferrell) takes photographs of the incident.

Archibald (Raymond Arbaugh) puts Myrtle under a spell.

Daisy, played by Molly Farrand, listens to Archibald's lies about Chester Quingle.

Chester (Randy Chapman) returns to claim his true love (Molly Farrand).

Earl Cochran, Jeff Ulbrich, Joyce Butler, Sue Fox, Sara Douglass, and Ronnie Crockett rehearse for "The Long Silence."

Thespians Give Three One-Act Plays

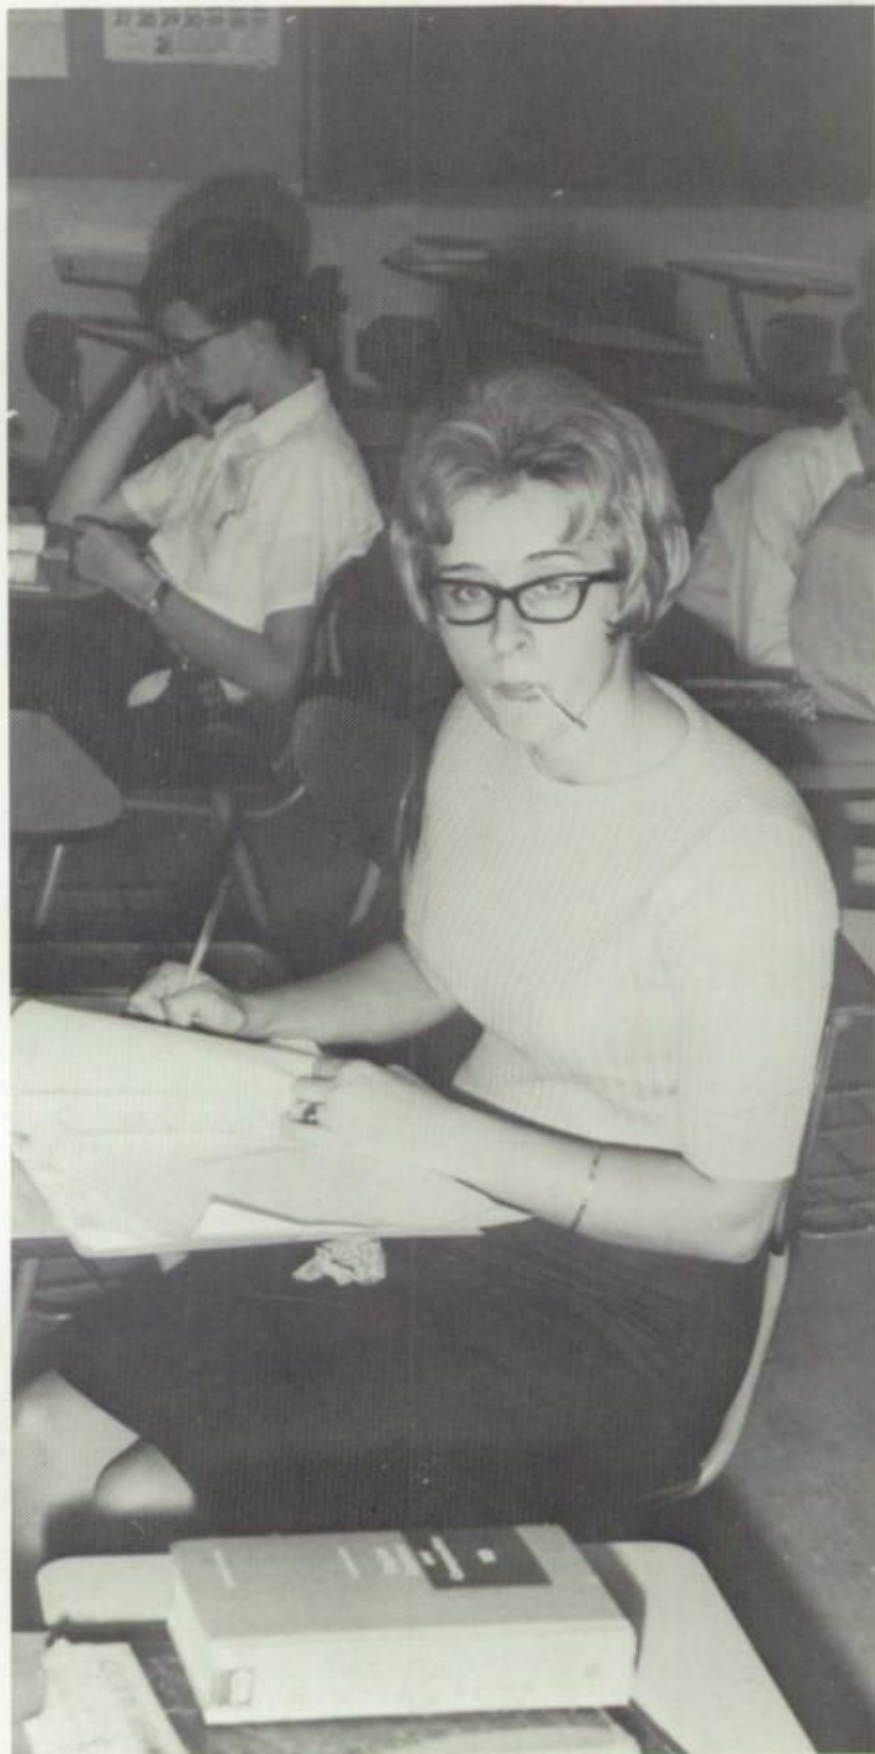

Glenn Allen, Bill Gregg, and Freddy Albert practice for "Fire Alarm."

Sue Ash, Ann High, Glenna Withrow, Linda Wilson, Dianna Spangler, David Ferrell, Becky Elliot, Janet Wilson, Linda Liukart, Kathy Riley, Mary Nester rehearse for "More Perfect Union."

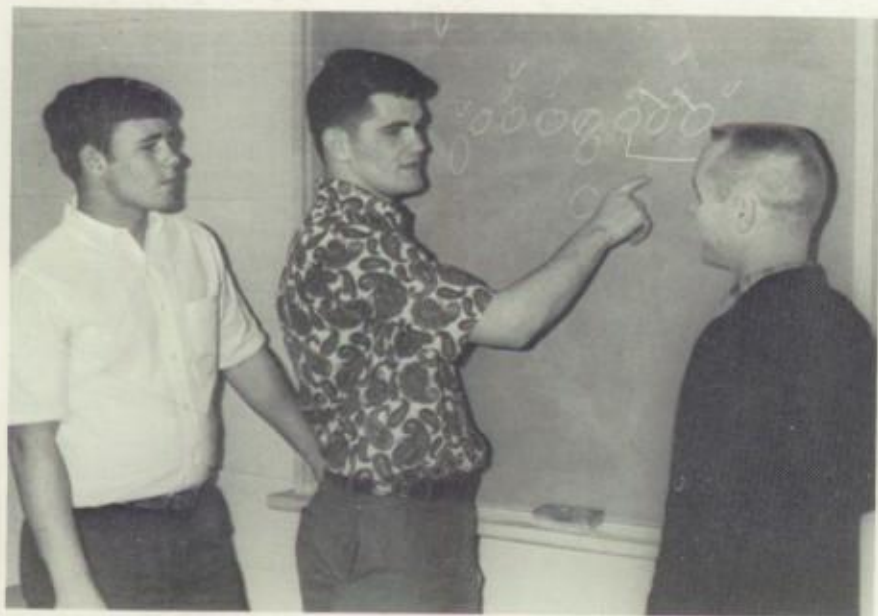

"Du Pont, with pride"

"We'll remember you always"

"Our love for you . . ."

" . . . grows more every year."

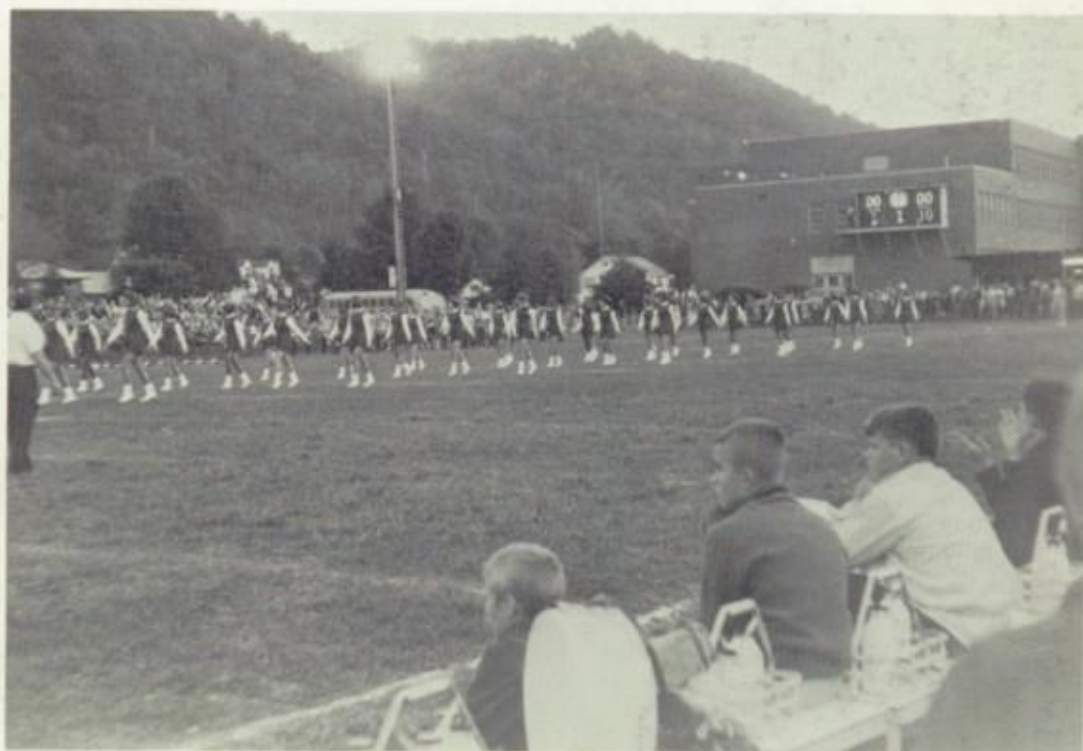

"And with our hearts . . ."

" . . . and minds . . . "

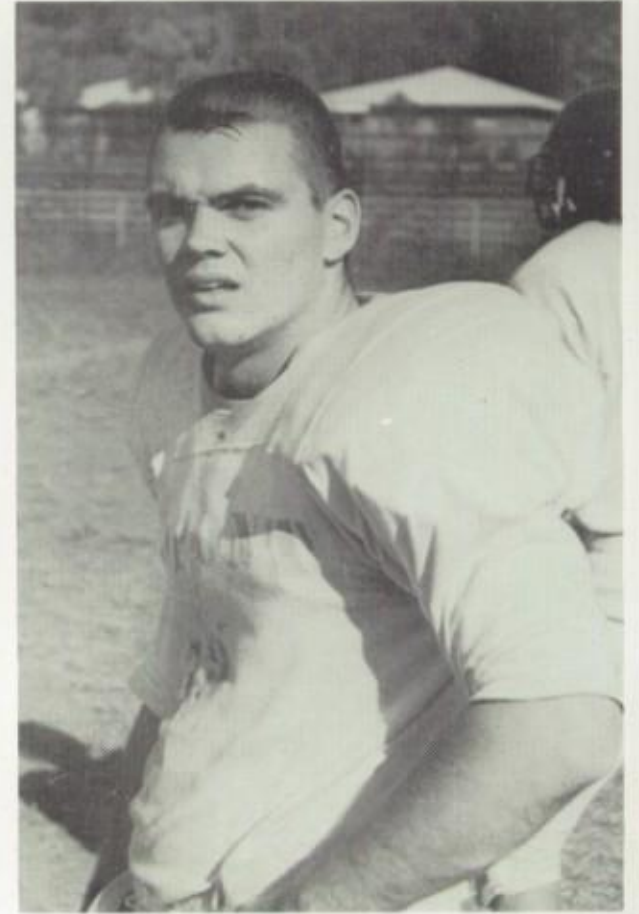

" . . . we'll ne'er regret . . . "

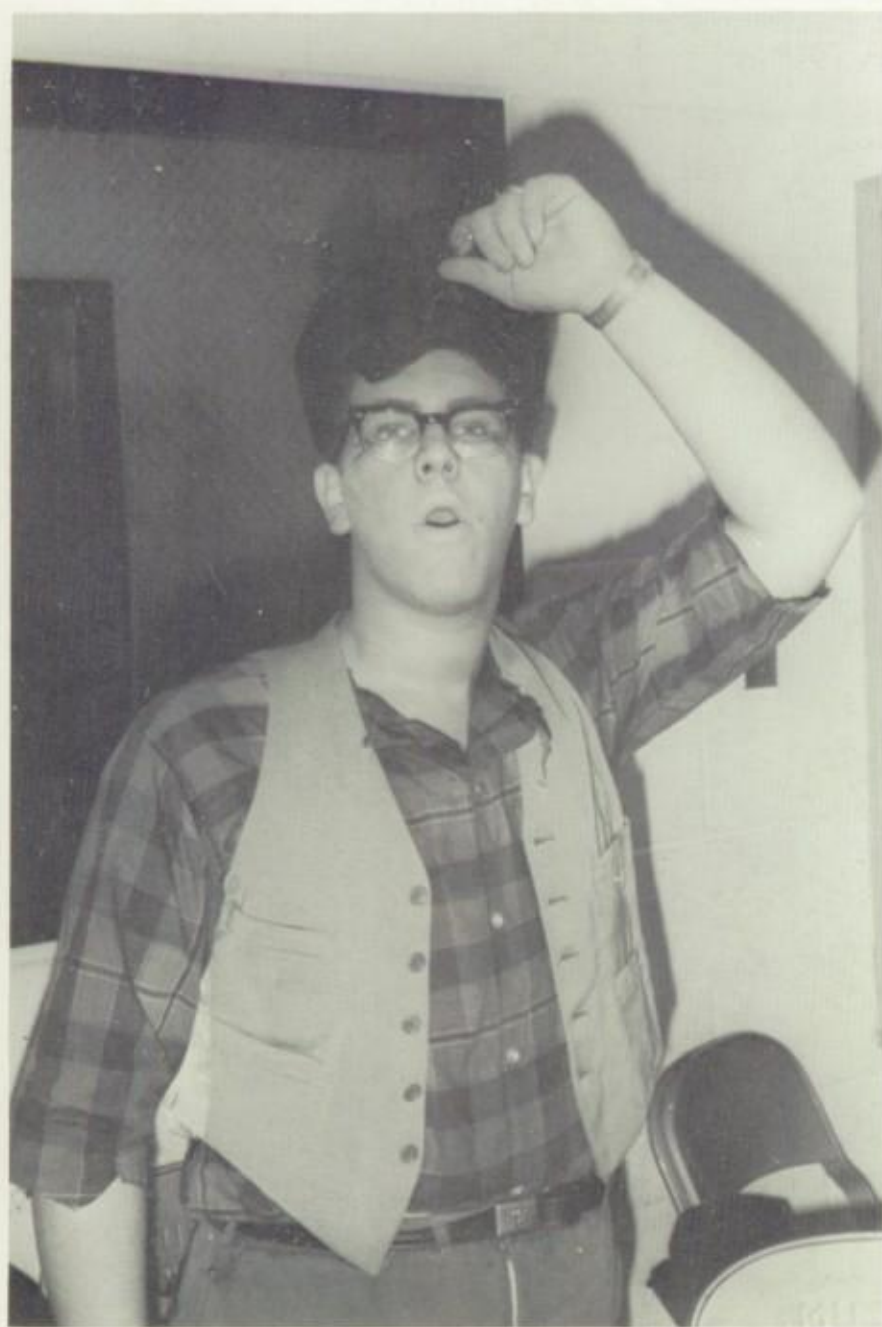

" . . . the wonderful moments . . . "

" . . . we'll never forget . . . "

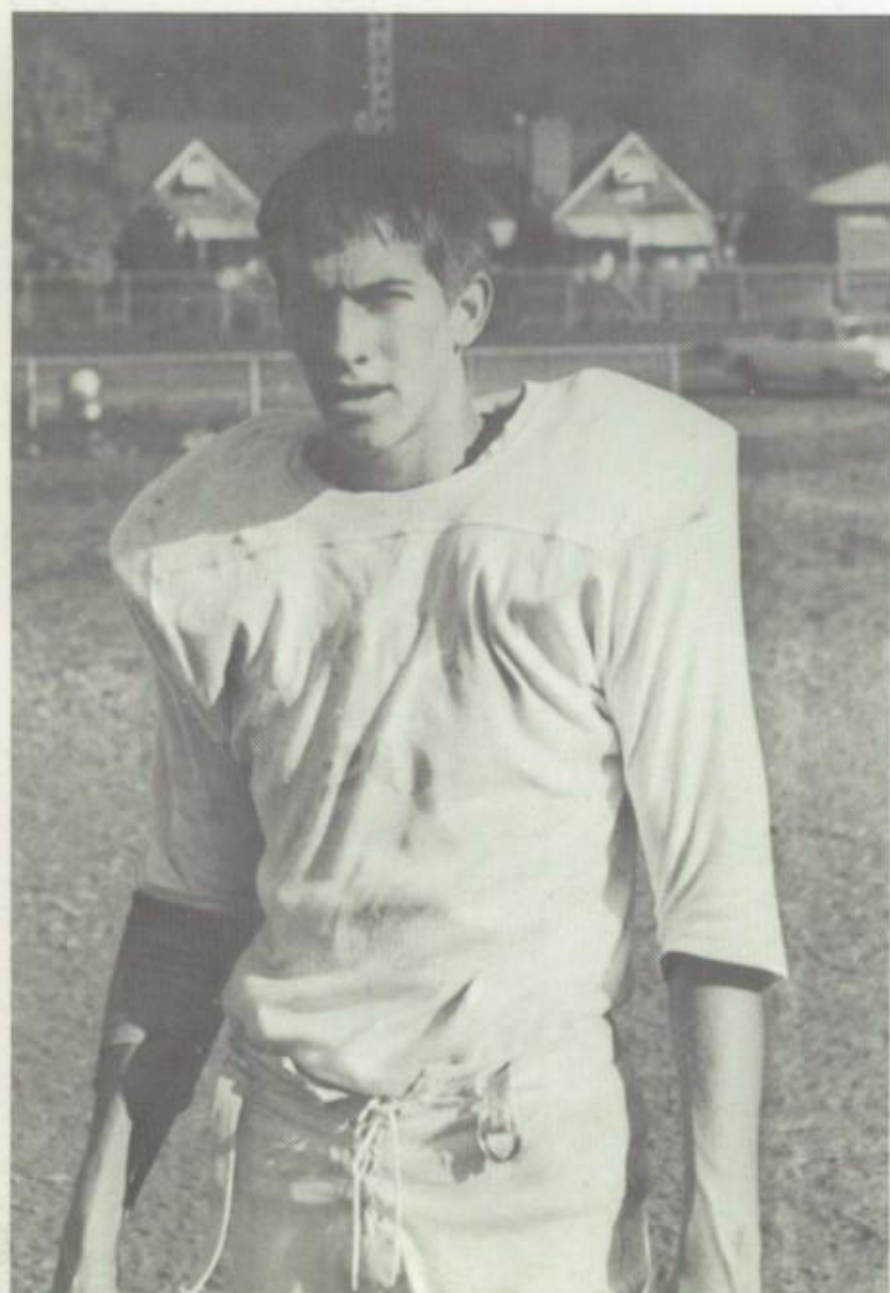

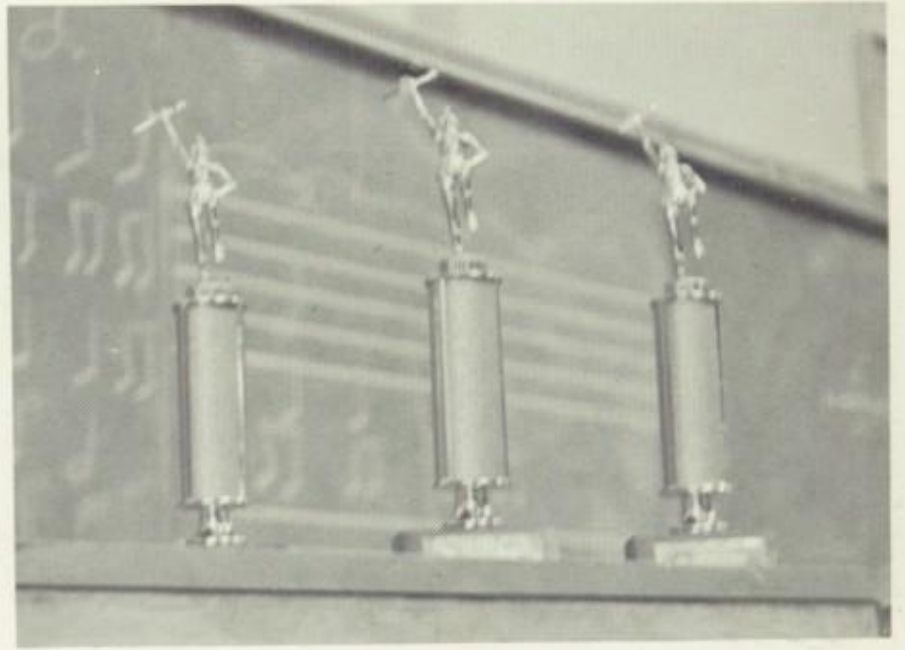

"The colors of gold . . ."

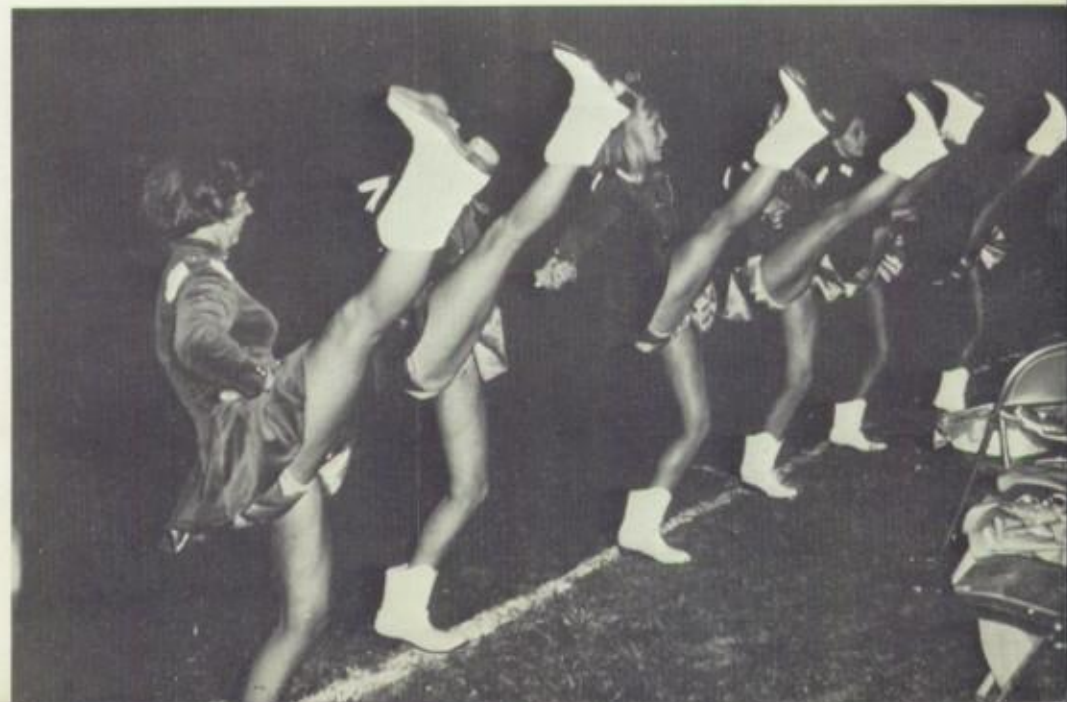

"... and blue ..."

" . . . to you we'll be true."

"And this alma mater . . ."

" . . . we sing to you."

Student Council House

House officers are Tommy Johnson, President; Ann High, Vice-President; Charlene Ferrell, Secretary; and Julie Martin, Treasurer.

The Student Council was formed in 1962, the year that the new school opened. A new constitution was approved in the spring of 1966, setting up a bicameral legislature, consisting of a Senate with 19 members and a House with 32 members.

Members of the Council must maintain a "C" average, and they must have attended DuPont High one year before running for office.

The purposes of the Student Council are: (1) To develop school spirit, student morale and pride in the school; (2) To teach leadership and fellowship; (3) To provide means for expressing student opinion; (4) Provide general welfare of the school; and (5) To furnish an opportunity for citizenship training.

This year the Council sponsored Homecoming, the Gift Basket Program, the Faculty-Senior Basketball Game, the Know Your School Assembly, and the Know Your Student Council Assembly.

Y-TEEN OF THE YEAR
Tressa McComas

"Y-Teens on the go—Go with us." With this motto to push members on to a work-filled and fun-filled year, the Y-Teens began their busy year.

First, a float for the Homecoming Parade was completed. Then the Christmas project was begun. Fifty corsages were made and given to patients at Spencer State Hospital. Next, the members and their dates spent an evening at a bowling party.

During Easter vacation some of the members toured New York City with a state-wide group. As graduation drew near, a dinner was held for the senior members and their dates. All in all, these girls had a very busy and fruitful year in fulfilling their motto.

Y-Teen officers are Tressa McComas, President; Susan Carver, Vice-President; Priscilla Ross, Secretary; Brenda Hardway, Treasurer; Linda Young and Janet Morris, Inter-Club Council.

French Club Active in School Affairs

OFFICERS—Myra Holtsclaw, President; Debbie Reid, Vice-President; Sue Fox, Secretary; Becky Elliott, Treasurer.

The French Club of DuPont High has been in existence for three years. Its purpose is to create a better understanding of the French language and culture.

This year it is composed of 45 members, an increase of ten over last year. All students must be enrolled in a French class or must have had two years of French to become a member. All members must maintain a passing grade in French during membership.

The French Club's activities for this year have included a banquet for new members, a spaghetti dinner, the building of a float for homecoming, and the contribution of $10 to both UNICEF and the DuPont High School Boosters Club.

Members of the French Club ride their float in the homecoming parade.

Quill and Scroll

Diane Crowder, Linda Bostic, Bill Gregg and Glafre Lawwill skip class during the United High School Press Association conference at Marshall University.

Quill and Scroll is the international honorary society for high school journalists. Requirements for membership are as follows: (1) Must be a junior or senior, (2) Must be in the upper one third of his class, (3) Must have done superior work in some phase of journalism or school publications work, (4) Must be recommended by publications sponsor.

The faculty sponsors for the organization are Mrs. Helene Vaughn and Mr. Allen Smith.

Quill and Scroll was organized on April 10, 1926, by a group of high school publications advisers to encourage and recognize individual achievement in student journalism.

The society has done much to improve high school publications and scholastic journalism standards.

Football isn't all glamor. Many knocks and bruises are the results of daily scrimmages such as the one pictured here.

James Thomas carries the ball around right end for a first down.

Panthers Down Catholic 12-0

Roland Willis is tackled by an unidentified Charleston Catholic player.

The Panther football express won its fourth game in four outings by defeating the Fighting Irish of Charleston Catholic 12-0 on September 22 before an overflow crowd at DuPont City.

Fullback Earl Cochran had the honor of scoring the first touchdown in the second quarter.

The final tally was set up by a sensational 36-yard aerial from Jim Fout to Fred Myers who dashed to the Irish one-yard line.

DuPont was equally strong defensively as they held Charleston Catholic inside of their 45-yard line in the first half.

The fighting Panthers made it six in a row on October 7, 1966, with a 19-0 shutout over George Washington. With one of the top defensive efforts of the season, DuPont limited G.W. to 119 yards and intercepted three G.W. passes.

Scoring for DuPont were Higginbotham Cosby, Billy Booker (on a 100-yard interception run) and David Dorsey, a 34-yard pass from Fout.

Come on baby, let's do the twist.

DuPont — 14; St. Albans — 23

With a 16-point outburst within two minutes of the second quarter, St. Albans rambled past the ever-fighting Panthers on October 14 at Laidley Field.

The Panther offense found the St. Albans secondary very tight and had four passes intercepted, one going for a St. Albans touchdown.

The Panthers didn't quit, however, and with one second on the clock, Billy Booker broke through a hole at right tackle and scampered 79 yards for a Panther T.D. Also scoring was David Dorsey on an 8-yard pass play from Fout.

Panthers Fall to Dragons; Defeat Hounds

DuPont — 26; Montgomery — 0

With the defense stacking up its fifth shutout of the season, the Panthers rolled to a 26-0 rout over Montgomery.

The charging defensive line, composed of John Elliott, Neil and Benny Hopkins, and James Thomas, held the Greyhounds to just 56 yards rushing while the equally tough secondary allowed only 17 yards passing.

The offense was directed by Billy Booker who took over when Jim Fout was injured on the first scrimmage play. Booker scored two T.D.'s himself and passed for two more, one going to Fred Myers for a 70-yard T.D. scamper.

Build a Better Mousetrap

... and the world will make a beaten path to your door.

It happens all the time in our country. People with imagination and ambition can expect to be rewarded. Each of us has the opportunity to fulfill our dreams ... to get ahead by building a better mousetrap.

In America profit and honor are rewards to those who make significant contributions to our way of life. This is because we believe in Free Enterprise, the economic system that has given us the highest standard of living in the world today.
